POSSIBLE SERVICE DELAYS DUE TO PROTEST ACTION

Golden Arrow would like to alert passengers to possible service delays as a result of protest action in the Philippi area. Two of our depots are unfortunately located very nearby and have been targeted by vandals who threw stones at buses and private vehicles.

Due to the threat of further violence a call was made to close one of the depots until law enforcement could offer assistance and some guarantee of safety. The situation remains tense but buses are being deployed. Unfortunately we are not able to predict what will happen going forward and further delays may be unavoidable.

We would like to apologise for any inconvenience and assure our passengers that we are working very hard to minimise possible delays.
