UNREST IN NYANGA

Golden Arrow Bus Services (GABS) can confirm that three of our buses were set alight in the Nyanga area this morning. There has also been a number of stoning incidents and reports of minor injuries.

The safety of our passengers and drivers remains our priority and as such we have suspended our services in the area. We ask our passengers to please make their way to Borchard's Quarry where there is a police presence.

We would like to apologise for any inconvenience and assure our passengers that we are doing everything in our power to ensure that they are safe and able to get to where they need to be.
